BALLOT MEASURES & PROPOSITIONS

Below are recommendations for this November's local and statewide measures, based on their expected impact on Roseville businesses, taxpayers, and the community. Some measures are initiative constitutional amendments, which change the California Constitution, while others are initiative statutes, which change state law. Prop 40 does both. Click here for more information about each Proposition and Measure.

State Measures

|                |                                                                                                                                                                                  |     |
|----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Prop 40 | One-time tax on individuals with assets over $1 billion, with revenue directed mainly to healthcare and education. Initiative constitutional amendment and statute.             | NO  |
| Prop 41 | Prohibits new state taxes that are exempted from the state spending limit and requires audits of new state special taxes. Initiative constitutional amendment.                   | YES |
| Prop 42 | Prohibits new state taxes on personal property, such as financial assets and retirement savings, and certain retroactive state taxes. Initiative constitutional amendment.       | YES |
| Prop 45 | Modifies environmental review (CEQA) for certain housing, transportation, water, and health projects, with the stated goal of speeding up project approvals. Initiative statute. | YES |

Local Measures

|                  |                                                                                                                                                     |     |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Measure A | Raises City Council compensation from $600/month, established by voters in 2000, to $2,550/month, with annual inflation adjustments capped at 5%. | YES |
